Conditions of Sale.

1.—The highest bidder shall be the purchaser, and if any dispute arises as to any Lot, the Lot in dispute shall be put up again and re-sold, or not, at the discretion of the Auctioneers, whose decision upon any matter in dispute shall be final. If any person purchase two or more lots, the price of all must be paid before the delivery of any.

2.—The whole to be sold with all faults and errors of description as in the Lots of the Catalogue, or as these may be divided or conjoined at the sale; and without any warranty whatever, the buyers being held to have satisfied themselves as to the condition, quality, quantity, and description of the Lots before bidding.

3.—No person shall advance at any bidding a less sum than shall be named by the Auctioneers at the time of putting up of each Lot, and no bidding shall be retracted. Purchasers to give their names and addresses to the Auctioneers when required.

4.—Each Lot shall be at the immediate risk of the purchaser as soon as knocked down, to be taken with all faults and errors of description (if any), to be paid for at the fall of the hammer, if required, otherwise at the close of the sale and before delivery.

5.—All Lots to be removed from the premises on or before day next, but not during the sale. A written order from the Auctioneers will be given for such removal to each purchaser at the time of settlement of his or her account.

6.—If any purchaser fail to comply with the foregoing conditions or any of them, the Lot or Lots purchased by him or her will be re-sold either by private sale or public auction at the option of the Auctioneers, and the deficiency (if any) by such re-sale, with all costs, shall be recoverable as liquidated damages from the defaulter at the present sale.

7.—Any dispute which may arise with reference to this sale or these Conditions shall be settled by the Auctioneers, whose decision shall be final in all cases, subject to no appeal, and the Auctioneers being the only advertised Agents of the Vendor, shall not be answerable for any matter in dispute between parties, or in any action in connection with this sale.
